

Ms Blancato,

i am so pleased that Connecticut is going to address the issue of saving our trees from quick and careless cutting by both developers and homeowners. It is time to honor their value to our quality of life, to the air we breathe, to our aesthetic sense. It's time to allow municipalities to protect these treasures.

Wishing you every success as you bring this legislation to the floor for a vote.

Pam Sloane

Old greenwich, CT 06870